

Curriculum vitae

Mathias Brachetti, born 1960, is for 30 years a massage-, physio- and manual therapist.

Since 2007, he is a teacher in manual therapy and since 2016 instructor, IFDMO, in the “Facial Distorsion Model - FDM” from Dr. Typaldos.

In 2009 he founded the academy of manual therapy in Hanover, nearby the Medical University of Hannover (MHH).

Before that time he was employed for 20 years in the MHH, department of rehabilitation.

At the same time he also taught as a freelancer in some schools for physiotherapists in Hannover.

One focus of his work is the setup of the cooperation with the Swedish and other associations of physiotherapy.
